Goa Tourism's association with Finding Fanny

Goa Tourism was roped in as the destination partner for the English - Hindi satirical bollywood movie 'Finding Fanny', a joint production of Maddock Films and Fox Star studios which was released on 12th September 2014. With the movie plot surrounded by 5 dysfunctional and contrasting characters set in a village of Goa, the State's tourism body was chosen to be the perfect destination partner keeping in mind Goa is the world's only tourist destination that has the maximum contrasts in the smallest geographical space. Goa being just 3702 sq.km in size, offers many contrasting experiences in the space of an hour which no other destination in the world can offer in such a small space...Read more>>
