

Preservation of rich cultural heritage of India and Goa depicted through Nukkad Natak (Street Play) marks Day 3 of Paryatan Parv in Goa

Panjim, Sept 18: Paryatan Parv, day 3 activity, Nukkad Natak was a grand success today with huge participation of onlookers which comprised of students, officials from India Tourism, Goa Tourism, tourism stakeholders along with tourists, passengers, local shop owners who watched the street play with much enthusiasm.

“Athidevo Bhawa” was the theme of the first part of the Nukkad Natak. The participants of Nukkad Natak also sensitized the people about preservation of India & Goa’s rich cultural heritage.

The importance of artifacts was also emphasized through the Nukkad Natak which was well accepted by the audience.

Students of Institute of Hotel Management (IHM) enacted various scenes and put up an enthralling performance at the Panjim KTC bus stand.